

About me

I am finding myself more everyday. This is a part of my journey that I share with you here. The beauty and richness and intricacy of the Universe, and of our individual lives, and our collective experience, interwoven into a deep multidimensional tapestry, reveals more of itself to me in every moment.

You can call me Jessi. Or Jessica. Or Jess. Really, I have no preference. Just don't call me dumb. Just kidding. :-)

But really...

If you are still with me, please know that each and every one of us is on a journey here. We are here to transition this world into a new one. One where peace prevails. A world where light and love are a universal language and lifestyle. We are free from our sins, from our fears, from our hangups and diseases. We are here to heal the world and make it a better place.

This is a part of me. In service to all of us. As I see it. Thanks for helping me be me. I hope to return the favor.
